

WATERCOLOR WORKSHOP TOUR to LAKE COMO & VERONA
with CAROLYN GROSSÉ GAWARECKI, NWS
June 4-17, 2007

LAKE COMO - the most beautiful setting of all the Italian Alpine lakes. Mountains slope steeply down to the beautiful blue water ringed by gardens, woods and villas, its atmospheric effects provide for impressionistic painting. Base for Carolyn's workshop will be the Hotel Villa Cipressi, Varenna, surrounded by gardens on the eastern shore. In addition to the many painting spots in and around Varenna, you will also visit other small towns accessed by boat. Then drive on to magical VERONA, famed of course by Romeo & Juliet, and a gem of a medieval city. Time to explore and paint, plus a full day's excursion to VENICE, with a morning walking tour, and free time for shopping, exploring and perhaps, sketching.

CAROLYN GROSSÉ GAWARECKI A Signature Member of the National Watercolor Society, Knickerbocker Artists, Watercolor Honor Society, Southern Watercolor Society and Virginia Watercolor Society plus several other societies. Carolyn is a nationally recognized artist, her work has won over 100 awards and is in corporate and museum collections. She was featured in THE ARTISTS MAGAZINE Dec. 1991 and her article "The Versatile Vignette" appears in the Summer 1997 WATERCOLOR MAGIC. Her work appears in "Artistic Touch 111" along with "Places" and "The Best of Watercolor". She is listed in Who's Who of American Art and has participated in the Arts in the Embassies Program. An experienced and dedicated teacher, Carolyn has taught workshops throughout the U.S. in Mexico, France, England, Ireland, Greece, Spain, and Bermuda, and has spent a month painting in Dinan, France on a 1997 grant. During September & October 2000, Carolyn had a large, successful watercolor exhibit at the French Embassy in Washington D.C.

Carolyn will teach plein air painting on location giving personal attention to each student, demonstrate and have daily critiques. Her husband Stephen, a professional photographer, will be on hand to advise on photography or help with camera problems. The tour will include several concentrated painting days, plus time for touring and exploring. The trip is suited to experienced beginners through advanced artists. Local orientation and informational meetings will be scheduled. A supply list will be provided and you may contact Carolyn at 703-532-5278, or email <grosseart@cox.net> with questions about the painting workshop or supplies.
